On April 24, 2012, United Farm Workers of America (UFW) filed timely a Request for Reconsideration of the Agricultural Labor Relations Board’s (Board) decision in 38 ALRB No. 3 pursuant to California Code of Regulations, title 8, section 20393, subdivision (c). The UFW’s request is hereby DENIED.

Section 20393, subdivision (c) of the Board’s regulations allows parties to move for reconsideration of a Board decision in representation proceedings because of extraordinary circumstances. The UFW fails to argue that there are “extraordinary circumstances” such as newly discovered evidence or a change in existing law that merit reconsideration of this matter. The UFW “merely raise[s] arguments previously addressed by the Board and has failed to cite any extraordinary circumstances justifying reconsideration.” (Mario Saikhon, Inc. (1991) 17 ALRB No. 6 at pp. 4-5).

ORDER

The Request for Reconsideration filed April 24, 2012 is DENIED.

By Direction of the Board.

Dated: May 4, 2012

J. ANTONIO BARBOSA
Executive Secretary, ALRB
